

1786

1912 Dates J-BK

(1743-1798) John FITCH

American Inventor. Born at East Windsor, Connecticut.

In 1787 he brought out a steamboat which accomplished 3 miles/hr.

A company for the promotion of navigation on the Delaware proved unsuccessful. Having failed to arouse interest in his invention in France (1793) he became dejected and committed suicide

Sept 11-14, 1786

Annapolis Convention Called by Virginia to discuss regulation of interstate commerce, resulting in the summoning of the Federal Constitutional Convention